He distinguished himself both in the spiritual and academic world, as a hardworking scholar and author. He firmly stood for the empowerment of all people of all races. His exemplary Christian life and wise leadership transformed many lives within Africa and around the whole world, as he touched lives in the six continents of the world with the precious seed of the true saving Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ for a period of over eight decades of his 100 years of life on earth. He was an outstanding Pentecostal Icon, evangelist, prophet, apostle, pastor, leader, counsellor and teacher who preached the saving Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ for 75 years non-stop. Guti also established a 24 hour satellite Television Station called Ezekiel TV which is also available online. Archbishop Professor Ezekiel Guti established churches in 169 nations and states in Six Continents of the World, and he continued to plant new churches and win many souls to the Lord Jesus Christ, even at 100 years of age. He was used mightily as a prophet, teacher, evangelist, and marriage counsellor, whose wisdom was sought after by people from all walks of life from politicians to ordinary citizens, captains of industry to the less educated, and even leaders of other churches. He was famous for the saying: "people are people." His burden was to see the standard of people raised as they operate in the Kingdom of God. As an evangelist outstanding and mighty miracles characterized his ministry for 75 years non-stop. He was a man of love, passionate soul winner, a fervent intercessor and had a great fatherly heart.
